Mr Troop commented on the bank's involvement, "As a Shari'ah compliant bank supporting this important event during the special occasion of Ramadan acts as a reminder of our over-arching aim to increasingly contribute to Qatar's successes, the values in stands for and upholds as well as the well-being of its society."

Mr Al Muhanadi went on to say, "I would like to take the opportunity to thank Barwa Bank for supporting us in this important religious and cultural event. Mashrou' Al Baraha provides a platform for people to come together during Ramadan and celebrate the virtues of Islam."
