

Barwa Bank sponsors 3rd Educational Forum

Organised by Al Markhiyah Independent School

Doha – March 20, 2012 - Barwa Bank, Qatar's fastest growing Shari'ah compliant banking service provider, is sponsoring the 3rd Educational Forum organised by Al Markhiyah Independent School. The forum will take place in Doha from March 17th to 22nd, 2012.

The forum, themed “Talents and Innovation”, aims at providing a platform for educators to meet with the objective of sharing knowledge and experience. The forum also aims at showcasing best practice in education in Qatar and abroad.

Commenting on this sponsorship, Mr. Hussein Al Abdullah, Head of Retail Banking, Barwa Bank said: “ As a leading national organization, we realize the importance of schools and the role educators play in the shaping of future generations. We wanted to be an active part in their effort and support the development of the educational process in Qatar on a grass root level”

The Forum will start with an opening ceremony on March 17 in Fareej Al Sharq Hotel, followed by daily sessions in Al Markhiyah Independent School. During the sessions, speakers from Qatar and abroad will address the major challenges and latest development in the educational process.

Mr. Steve Troop, CEO, Barwa Bank Group commented on the occasion: “Barwa Bank is active in a number of social initiatives focusing mainly on education and sports, as key enablers of human and social development, two principal pillars of the Qatar 2030 vision. We will continue to support such initiatives and work with various institutions in Qatar to contribute positively to our society”.

END